Sealed orders act when the player of record submits no moves for a season. They should contain a statement of enemies, allies, neutrals, priorities in advance, defence, retreat, building and removal so that a neutral player may make a set of moves based upon their direction(s).

a letter;

Dear Len;

Edi (Birsan) called last week and requested that GenCon withdraw its bid for DipCon in the interest of DIPLOMACY. He stated that Origins wished to begin advanced publicity, and if we maintained our bid no decision could be made until March, thus hurting IDA/Dippy press. As it seems clear that GenCon stands only an outside chance at best for DipCon IX, and our bid was made primarily to establish us as a serious consideration for future DipCons, we agreed. This means that we will put in a strong bid for 1977, and we will begin our publicity for this bid IMMEDIATELY. Can we expect your support and aid? We would like to work with you on this.

Meanwhile, plans for a fantasy battle at GenCon can now proceed. Let us know what day will suit you best, times, etc.

Best Regards,

Gary (Gygax)

--for all of you D&D fans he also promises a hobby shop opening soon and knowing Gary it will a great effort.

Naturally it is unfortunate that IDA did not get its DipCon committee moving more rapidly so that a vote could in fact be taken. But Gary has bowed out with the promise of a great convention for 1977. I have attended 5 of the 8 GenCons and all of those have been superb--the last, Gen Con VIII had an attendance of over 1,000!

Needless to say I will give my full support to the 1977 GenCon/DipCon! I urge you to attend this year's event which will feature fantasy miniatures and Dungeons and Dragons!

I will be gamesmastering a fantasy battle (or two) at Gen Con using variable success Spell Rules as outlined in LD. Since I will be spending most of the week in Lake Geneva I will try a separate game for each of the convention's scheduled days. I have suggested to Gary a team event using a single elimination system--as we did in 1971 at Gen Con for an armor team game. The plans for this event will firm up before Christmas once Gary and I have crossed a few letters in the mails.

To keep abreast of all GenCon IX plans we urge you to subscribe to the Strategic Review. It carries many articles and complete news on GenCon. An Advertisement of that publication is enclosed! Sub today! Highly recommended.
